We (Cliff) were married in 1972, in Hawaii, where he was pursuing his Masters in Marine Botany. We moved to Olympia where he worked for the state in his field, and then to Seattle where he opened a flower shop on Capitol Hill and began working in landscaping.

We separated in the late 70's but stayed close.

Charlie was a chef. He was inventive and obsessive in the area of cuisine and found ways of trapping and preparing the wildlife that wandered on to the farm.
